

Sept. 29, 1939.

Mr. James Semler,
2289 - 7th Ave.,
New York City.

Dear Sir:

I am very anxious to close the League books for the season.

The bill against The Black Yankees for $195.00 still stands. This money was to have been collected from games played during May and June. This was not done as you know. What disposition do you care to make of the same?

Will appreciate an early reply.

Very truly yours,

AM:CCJ